One of the recommended printer for home and small office needs is a product launched by Samsung called Samsung SCX-4623F. This machine provides the function of printer, copier, scanner, and fax machine in just one device. For the connectivity, it is only equipped with USB port, which limits its accessibility to multiple device remotely. This machine is compatible with various operating systems, including Windows (XP and later), Linux, and Mac OS X (version 10.3 and up). Samsung SCX-4623F has a pretty big paper tray for a printer on its class, with 250 sheets capacity. The design of this printer is pretty great for a printer with fax machine, with 25.35 lbs. in weight, and 16.1 x 12.6 x 16.4 inches in height, depth, and width respectively. In a month, this printer is able to print up to 12,000 impressions, which is a great news for small offices with heavy duty print jobs. Using monochrome laser as its printing technology, Samsung SCX-4623F can only produce monochrome documents. The printing speed is quite fast, but not remarkable, with 23 pages per minute. The maximum resolution is slightly above average, with 1200 x 1200 dpi.
